

The Durham Sunday Globe.

EDWARD A. OLDHAM,

Editor and Proprietor.

OBITUARY NOTICES, ETC.

The Globe finds it necessary to charge one cent per word for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, recommendations for office and similar matters, and the copy must be accompanied by the cash. Where the applicant is a patron of the paper, we make no charge for the first 30 words, all over that number will be charged at above rates.

CORRESPONDENTS WANTED

The Globe desires a correspondent in every town in the state—writers who know a news item when they see it, and who will stop writing when they have told all they started out to say.

LOCAL READERS

Will be inserted in The Globe at ten cents per line each insertion, or five cents per line each insertion when as many as ten lines at a time are inserted.

Our State exchanges are requested to change the name of The Plant to The Globe, on their mailing books.

Subscribers not getting their paper promptly and regularly are requested to notify the office at once.

The price of The Globe is 50 cents a month. We have no complimentary copies.

CITY ITEMS.

THE SUNDAY GLOBE is always at Whitehurst's Drug Store.

THE SUNDAY GLOBE is on sale at Whitehurst's Drug Store.

Mr. Arthur Lyon, who is attending school is home on a visit.

Mr. Lucien Cole, returned yesterday from an extended business trip.

Mrs. Bettie Seales, of Greensboro is the guest of her sister Mrs. W. W. Fuller.

Mrs. W. D. Bethel, and Mr. Jno M. Hutchins, of Danville, were at the Jones meetings.

The Boyle trial has been the subject of conversation on the street corners for several days past.

There will be no services at any church except the Episcopal today, where the usual services will be conducted.

Owing to the unusual press of matter The Globe's customary installment of Raleigh city news was crowded out.

Read THE SUNDAY GLOBE. It has the freshest and best news in the State. Find it on sale at Whitehurst's Drug Store.

Mr. T. B. Eldridge, editor of the Lexington Dispatch, was in the city yesterday attending the Sam Jones meetings.

The incoming trains were packed yesterday while the outgoing carried only the train employees and a few drummers.

The program for the meetings to-day will be experience meeting at 9 a. m., sermon at 10:30 a. m. at 3 p. m. and at 7:30 p. m.

Several families from a distance were busy yesterday moving furniture into houses rented temporarily for the occasion of the Sam Jones meeting.

Dr. L. B. Henderson's new dental rooms, over the Bank of Durham, have been recently fitted up and present a handsome and inviting aspect, even if one doesn't want his molars extracted.

Strike of Glass Blowers Ended.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5.—The strike of window-lift glass blowers, which began last June and has seriously effected the manufacturers and 5,000 employees in the business, most of whom are located in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Maryland, was settled today in this city. The delegates representing both sides met and after a full interchange of opinions, an agreement was reached and a scale to continue one year was signed. The demand of the blowers was for an advance of ten percent, but a compromise advance of 5 percent was agreed upon. The new scale goes into effect immediately. Preparations for resumption of work will begin in all the factories interested on Monday.

Don't forget to visit the Inimitable Whitaker's elegant store.

TOBACCO DEPARTMENT.

ALEX WALKER, EDITOR.

DURHAM, Oct. 5.—There is small breaks of tobacco today. The sales of leaf tobacco during the week have been what you might call a good average week's work and very satisfactory to both buyer and seller, and when we take in the entire week's work we see no changes worthy of note, the week closing with a firm market.

The board of trade, at a call meeting on the 30th ult., passed a resolution that during the Rev. Sam P. Jones' meeting tobacco sales would be run from 8 to 10 o'clock a. m. and from 1 to 3 o'clock p. m.

RICHMOND, Oct. 5.—(Special.) I give our inspectors' report for the year ending Sept. 30th, 1889, showing in full operations of this market, also figures showing in comparison the business of several previous years. The report for the past twelve months is particularly flattering, showing a decrease of 7,000 hogsheads since last year this time and a smaller stock of tobacco than we have had since 1885. Our receipts from now on will be light of Virginia and North Carolina tobacco. Market quiet but firm with good demand for all desirable wrappers.

Counterfeiters Captured.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 5.—Two gangs of counterfeiters were surrounded near Palon yesterday by United States officers. Eight men were captured and are being brought to this city in charge of a deputy marshal. Several months ago some spurious silver dollars were put on the market in this vicinity and Treasury Agent Carter, after considerable investigation, traced the stuff to the unsuspecting gang of counterfeiters. There are fifteen men in all engaged in the making of the counterfeit money.

EPISCOPALIANS IN CONVENTION.

A Memorial From the Colored People Presented. Discussing an Important Resolution.

NEW YORK Oct. 5.—The General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal church of America went into session today at 10 o'clock a. m. A memorial from the colored members of the church was presented, in which it was asked that they have equal representation.

The order of the day, was the consideration of the resolution coming up, Rev. Dr. Bailex, of Arkansas took the floor and spoke in opposition to it. He argued that the Nicene creed presented to the convention was not a catholic creed but a Roman creed and should not be accepted by the convention.

The resolution was then discussed by a number of prominent members of the convention mostly of whom were in favor of it. The resolution was put to a vote by diocese and adopted. The House of Deputies then adjourned until Monday. The House of Bishops at their session took up the question of dividing the church territory into provinces and notified the House of Deputies to that effect.

VISITING OLD BATTLEFIELDS.

Union and ex-Confederate Soldiers Together Revive Old Memories on the Fields of Winchester.

WINCHESTER, Va., Oct. 5.—Two hundred representatives of the Maine Veterans' regiments, accompanied by Gov. Burleigh and staff, arrived here on a special train this morning. They were escorted by a committee of citizens to the court house hall and were received with a cordial welcome by Mayor Atkinson.

Gov. Burleigh responded remarking that the reception was one of the bright spots in the tour. Capt. J. J. Williams, Col. Jas. A. Nulton and Gov. Holliday all Confederate veterans then made patriotic speeches. The sentiments expressed were loudly cheered by the Maine veterans and ladies accompanying them. When the meeting adjourned the veterans and ladies gathered around and warmly greeted him.

The party then visited the national and State cemeteries at both of which the band rendered dirges. The day was spent in visiting the battle fields of Kernstown and Fisher's Hill. The visitors will leave to-morrow for Luray Cave.

THE NAGLE-TERRY CASE.

No Court Has Jurisdiction Over the Case.

STOCKTON, Cal., Oct. 5.—The grand jury of San Joaquin county has presented its final report concerning the case of Deputy U. S. Marshal Nagle.

It says that the facts show that the killing of the late Judge Terry was intentional and deliberate and that while the constitution and laws of the State require that a crime against its laws should be tried thereunder, the accused was taken from the power of the State by a process emanating from the United States Circuit court.

The report continues: "The United States Circuit court has decided that Nagle cannot be tried by the State court, essentially for a like want of jurisdiction, from which it is fair to conclude that he can not be tried in any court."

No More Charavari Parties.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 5.—The Iowa Supreme Court has given the death blow to the hitherto sacred rights and privileges of Charavari parties. It has reversed the decision of Judge Stewart, of the district court in a murder case of the State vs. Royal Adams, who was indicted for murder in the first degree for the accidental shooting of a person named Daring, a member of the Charavari party convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to the penitentiary for seven years and six months.

America and the Paris Exposition.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The Department of State has received a telegram from General Franklin: United States Commissioner General to the Paris Exposition, saying that the United States exhibit had been awarded 53 grand prizes, 199 gold medals, 271 silver medals, 218 bronze medals, 220 honorable mentions, and indicating that all the rewards have not yet been announced, and that the above list would certainly be increased.

Persecuting the Boulangerists.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—Deroulede and another Boulangerist, M. Castelin, on leaving the meeting this evening were attacked by opponents and beaten with sticks, notwithstanding they threatened their assailants with a revolver and a sword cane. They were rescued by friends.

Now is the time to buy a buggy. R. I. Rogers has the largest stock on the market.

SAM JONES HERE.

one-eyed nigger and a dog. Said he, suppose Job's wife would go to these little shows that come to Durham, that in New York there are first-class theatrical attractions, but none of these ever come here. It wouldn't pay them to do it.

Mr. Jones said his ideal preacher was John the Baptist, because of his undying loyalty to God. He said John's love of his Creator was so great that before modifying his religious views he would lay in jail till the ants toted him out through the keyhole.

Mr. Jones went for the whiskey men in vigorous style. Nobody but an infernal scoundrel would sell liquor and nobody but an infernal fool would drink it.

A saloon-keeper was like a louse because he gets his living off the heads of families.

It is impossible with the space at disposal to give a more detailed and connected report of the sermon, although the reporter's notebook is full of matter.

At the close of the sermon Mr. Jones invited all who would be loyal to the cause of Christ to come up and shake his hand. A large number went up.

Train Wrecked.

ROME, Ga., Oct. 5.—A north bound freight train on the Rome & Decatur railroad, was wrecked eight miles south of here this afternoon. The engine and a number of cars rolled down an embankment, instantly killing fireman Charlie Sprout and a negro brakeman, name unknown. Engineer Bob Hill, famous for his many miraculous escapes in various other railroad wrecks was seriously, and probably fatally injured.
